The fashion special edition

Thanks to our new fashion special edition «Design, Trends & Fashion» as a supplement to «Schweizer Optiker» during the month of April, you are not only at the centre of focus in the optics sector, but also with the in-store customers. The distribution concept provides opticians with a certain extra number of our special edition, as well as the option to order further issues (even individualised).

Our special edition informs you about the newest glasses and fashion trends for the spring/summer season 2023.
